Until recently Charles Hillman appeared to be the favored suitor of the pretty brunettebut just prior to her mysterious disappearance a lovers' quarrel occurred and Mr. Hillman demanded back his letters and other evidences of his affection from Miss Barclay. It was for the purpose of testing the young man's sincerity and devotion to her that Miss Barclay disappeared, and, instead of cloping with Moyer, she went to the home of a married sister in Harlem and remained there until her departure yesterday for her home in Brooklyn. Young Hillman has thoroughly reëstablished himself in Miss Barclay's affections by the solicitude he manifested during her absence and by his joy over her return. Miss Barclay hastened her return in consequence of the published rumors of her elopement with Moyer, who is a married man with a divorce suit pending against his wife, and who will probably have to explain his actior in intimating that there was an understanding between him and Miss Barclay when she went away so suddenly. be the favored suitor of the pretty brunette

DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE. Two Convicts Fatally Wounded at the Michigan Penticultury.

JACKSON, Mich., Aug. 30.-Edward Huntley. a Detroit burglar, serving a twenty years' sentence; John Davis, a burglar from Kalamazoo, serving a term of five years, and "Lige" Buliard from Detroit, sentenced to six years for assault with attempt to kill. tried to escape this morning from the penitentiary by climbing the prison wall. Huntley and Davis were fatally shot and Bullard was captured. On Aug. 16, 1891, both Huntley and Davis escaped by scaling the walls. Huntley was caught in two months, and Davis was extradited from Canada. Huntley and Bullard have recently worked on the Withington and Cooley contract, but in different shops. Davis was engaged on the marble cutting contract, a long way from the other two men. The attempt was made at 7 o'clock, and was timed to advantage. The convicts secreted a ladder inside the wall. A keeper, Case, saw Huntley and Bullard leave the shop. They ran swiftly to the south corner, where Davis joined them. The three convicts placed the ladder against the wall. Davis running up. He threw stones at the guard on the wall as he advanced, and at others who followed inside the yard. Clark, one of the guards, fired three times at the

at others who followed inside the yard. Clark, one of the guards, fired three times at the men, but missed. An inside guard named Prangman attempted to pull the ladder down, when Huntey rushed at him with a knife. Prangman, not being armed, ran. The convicts atormed the guardhouse on the wall, inside of which Guard Clark was. They attempted to batter in the door to kill Clark and secure the gun. Huntley carried a board shield four feet long and iron covered, which he held in front of him to protect him from the buliets and atones which were directed toward him. Seeing all three guards coming Huntley jumped down outside the wall and started to run.

By this time Clark had put new cartridges in his gun and began firing again. He struck Huntley twics. Freeman, another guard came up at this juncture and brought Davis down with a ball in the left hip, which shattered the bone, and he fell from the wall. Bullard threw up his hands and was handcuffed and brought in. On Huntley was found a knife, ground to a keen point and as sharp as a razor. Davis also had a similar one. Both were taken to the hospital and their wounds examined. The doctors say neither will live. Huntley at once telegraphed his sister. Mira L. A. Tafft of Oak Grove, to come on the first train. Bullard has a ball and chain attached to him.

REVENGE FOR HER SISTER

Mrs. Uline Comes to Court and Accuses

Common Law Husband, Annie Kilburn, a good-looking young woman, was sent to the island for a month by Justice Ryan at Jefferson Market on Monday. on a charge of disorderly conduct made by who, she said, was her common law husband. Shercroft accused her of hitting him on the head with a china bowl. Mrs. Jane Uline of 301 Bleecker street, entered Jefferson Market yesterday morning, her arms full of silver-ware. She told Justice Ryan that it had been stolen by Shercroft from the Colonial Club at Sherman square and West Seventy-second sreet. The woman didn't hesitate to say that she was actuated by revenge in disclosing Shercroft's dishonesty. She is a sister of [An-

she was actuated by revenge in disclosing Shercroft's dishonesty. She is a sister of IAnnie Kilburn.

She said that her sister came to New York four years ago, an innocent country girl of ninoteen, and got employment as a saleswoman in a dry goods store. All went well until the young woman met Shercroft. He. Mrs. Uline says, deceived her and took her to live at the Tenth street house. Shercroft, according to the woman, began to abuse Annie and neglect her. On Sunday night Annie struck Shercroft because he beat her again. A court officer was sent to the Colonial Club. He came back with Superintendent Conklin. Conklin identified the silverware as belonging to the club. It was all marked "C. C." The superintendent was about to swear out a warrant when Shercroft, accompanied by a man named Coen, entered the court room. Coen qualified and the woman was discharged. In the mean time Shercroft was arrested. Superintendent Conklin recognized him immediately as a man who had been employed in May and June at the Colonial Club as a waiter. Shercroft declared that he got the silverware from a porter who had stolen it, and who had given him some to keep his mouth shut. He offered to tell the name of the preservant of the charge and Shercroft was held.
